Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Custodian Engineers of South Dakota provide a vital service to the people of this state; and,

WHEREAS, With their commitment to cleanliness, order and efficiency, our Custodian Engineers offer thousands of South Dakotans a healthful and safe place to work, learn, and live; and,

WHEREAS, Their tireless efforts make for sanitary hospital rooms, spotless conference rooms, and sparkling restrooms; and,

WHEREAS, Such immaculate working conditions are known to increase worker productivity, elevate the public morale, and boost the pride of all who live and work in quarters cleaned under such custodial care; and,

WHEREAS, In addition to these indoor responsibilities, the work of Custodian Engineers can also be seen in the beautiful and orderly grounds that surround our public and private edifices; and,

WHEREAS, Altogether, the work of Custodian Engineers statewide is largely responsible for the continued safety and well-being of South Dakota's workers, students, patients and tenants; and,

WHEREAS, We owe a great deal to these Custodian Engineers for all they do to keep our state looking good, and for giving our people a continued sense of pride in their home state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 15, 16 and 17, 1988, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
